Learning Journey

Appreciates the diversity of animal life and groups animals in various ways.

Recognises how light, air, water and soil help life and follows ways to protect them.

Understands and follows safety rules at home and school and in the community.

Classifies objects using the five senses.

Collaborates with classmates and learns to express his/her feelings in various situations.

Participates in the daily routines of family and helps elderly people.

