Story Time

Where are they going?

One morning, Alex saw a line of ants on the wall.

They walked in a straight line.

"Where are they going?" he thought.

Alex followed them.

They went to the water pot in the kitchen. They went along the window.

THB

Encourage children to observe the pictures and predict the events in the story. Read the story aloud, highlighting the names of things at home and the prepositions used.