Unit II

4. How Can We Count Quickly?

Let us Learn

VA2NR

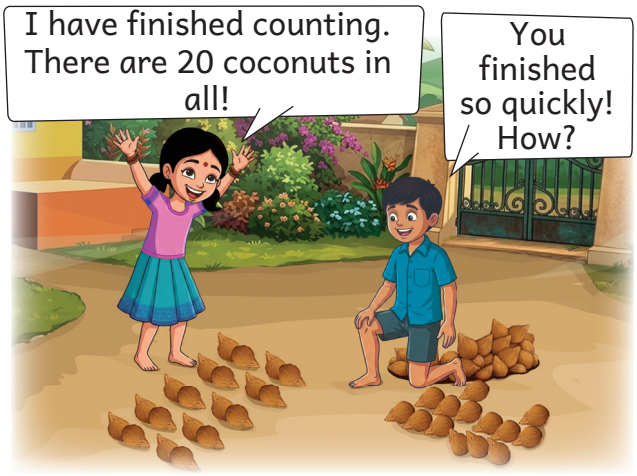

A coconut seller had kept coconuts in two heaps. Just then, his children, Alvin and Angel came there.

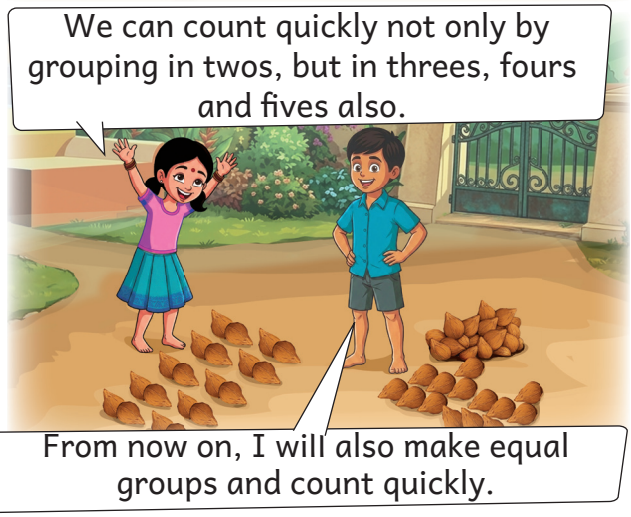

At that time, their mother called them for lunch. They replied that they would come after counting the coconuts.

THB Narrate the story to explain that objects can be counted more quickly by arranging them into equal groups instead of counting them one by one.