Learning Check

Answer the following questions.

1. Tick (✓) the appropriate unit of measurement to measure the length of the given object.

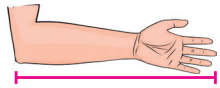

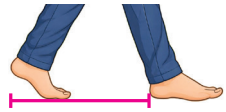

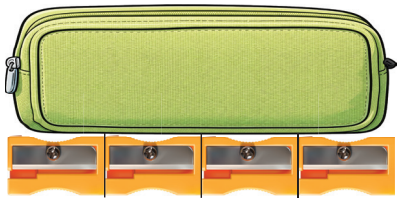

2. Tick (✓) the appropriate unit of measurement to measure the length of the given object.

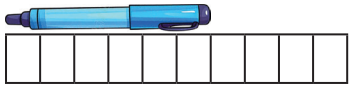

3. Count the sharpeners and write the length of the given object.

4. Colour the boxes as per the length of the object, count and write.

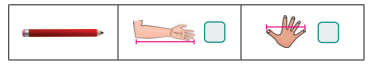

5. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

The length of a room can be measured using footspans. Yes / No

What I Learnt

Understand non- standard measures

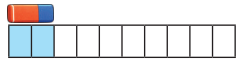

Measure the length/height using non-standard units

Units	Estimated length of the table		Actual length of the table
	Your measurement	Your friend's measurement	Your measurement	Your friend's measurement

Measure the length/height using non-standard uniform units

2 ☐

