Move Smart! Think Smart!

Perform these five-minute movements daily for better focus and coordination. Do one new movement a week.

1.

Walk twice in the same place.

Take 2 steps to your left with left hand stretched side-ways and right hand raised.

Walk twice in the same place.

Take 2 steps to your right with right hand stretched side-ways and left hand raised.

2.

Stretch your arms. Twist your body to the right.

Stretch your arms. Twist your body to the left.

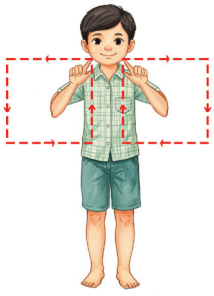

Raise right hand over head and bend to the left. Place left hand on the abdomen.

Raise left hand over head and bend to the right. Place right hand on the abdomen.

3.

Make squares with the index fingers of both hands.

Make circles with the index fingers of both hands.

Draw vertical figure of 8 with the index fingers of both hands.

4.

Make a fist with your palms. Rotate hands 3 times clockwise and 3 times anti-clockwise.