First, Cheeku took Meena to the wall. A spider was spinning a web there. "It is the spider's home," said Cheeku.

Next, Cheeku took Meena to a tree. A woodpecker was pecking at the trunk. There is a hole in the tree. That is the woodpecker's home.

Then, Cheeku showed her a branch. Bees were buzzing around a beehive. It is the bees' home.

Meena looked around happily.

THB

Encourage children to observe the pictures and guess the events in the story. Read the story aloud, highlighting the homes of birds and other creatures in context.